

Baseball Story Recall

This is another great story recall activity. The kids really love this one. IT is similar to Bible Baseball, but a lot more fun...

Needed:

- Pack of Index Note Cards (For Questions and Plays)
- Dry Erase Marker
- White Board

Preparation:

- (Batting Cards) Write the following on Index Cards
  - 5 cards with "Single"
  - 5 cards with "Double"
  - 5 cards with "Triple"
  - 3 cards with "Home Run"
- On the other cards, write questions from your story (make plenty).
- Draw a Ball Diamond on White Board with Bases Large enough to write a single set of initials to represent boy on base.

Play:

- Divide boys into two teams. Even up the ages so it will be fair.
- Let boys come up with their own ball team name (optional)
- Team A starts play –
  - Player 1 Draws Batting Card
  - Leader Asks Question. If Player answers correctly, Leader writes boy's initials on base completed, unless it's a home run. If Player cannot answer, he's out and Leader can choose to use the same question on next player or add question back to deck.
- Each Run scores as one point for team
